

Miss Feltham's Reading Challenge (Key Stage 1)

Happy half term everyone! Here is another reading challenge to keep you busy over the holiday and next half term to earn you lots of team points for your house. See how many of these tasks you can finish and ask an adult to sign the boxes for you when you have done them. Each activity is worth different amounts of points, but these won't be revealed until the challenge is over...

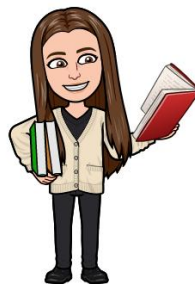

We would love to see some pictures of you all completing the challenges, and there will of course be extra prizes up for grabs for the best snaps and the most interesting reads. Your adults can send them to yr6@preston.ppat365.org

Please give your sheets back to your teacher by

Friday 7th July.

Have a brilliant half term and happy reading!

Miss Feltham 😊
