Happy half term, Key Stage 2! Here is another challenge to help you keep busy over the holiday and the next month to earn hundreds of team points for your house...

Tick off as many different stories from the bingo grid as you can and write the title of each book on the line beneath them. Each activity is either worth 5 or 10 team points, but this won't be revealed until you have handed your grid back to your teacher. Ask an adult to sign each off for you as you complete them.

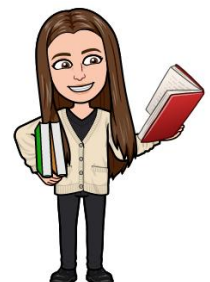

For the chance to earn bonus points and prizes, I want to see all of the new vocabulary you've learned from your stories. Record any words that you didn't know the meaning of and their definitions on the Vocab for Victory sheet and watch the team points come rolling in! A separate prize will be awarded for the most bizarre or interesting word, so keep your eyes peeled...

Please return your bingo and vocabulary sheets to your class teacher by Friday 7th July.

Have a super half term and happy reading everyone!
