8th November 2023.

Dear Parent/Guardian,

I hope this letter finds you well. As we enter the month of November, I am excited to share with you our current reading challenge that we will be undertaking at our school to promote a love for reading and expand our pupils' horizons: "Non-Fiction November"!

Non-Fiction November is a month-long celebration of non-fiction literature. While fiction books often take the spotlight, non-fiction texts are equally important for expanding knowledge, critical thinking, and real-world understanding. During this month, we aim to inspire our pupils to explore the diverse world of non-fiction and embrace the wealth of knowledge it offers.

Within school, the children will be encouraged to read non-fiction books from their classes and our library. We also have children's newspapers and access to excellent online reading resources, such as CBBC Newsround.

Please encourage your child to read non-fiction at home. This may include reading fact books, (auto)biographies, newspaper, and magazine articles (online too) and even following recipes and how to guides.

Please record any reading in your child's reading diary and they will win team points and prizes!

Thank you for your continued support of our school's educational initiatives. Together, we can inspire a lifelong love for reading in our students.

Warm regards,

E Feltham
